The Epiphany of the Lord

January 3, 2010

First Reading: Isaiah 60: 1 - 6

Isaiah rejoices over the light and glory that will shine upon Jerusalem. He describes how the wealth of nations will be brought to Jerusalem, and travelers will arrive bearing gifts and praising God.

Second Reading: Ephesians 3: 2 – 3a, 5 - 6

Paul explains to the Ephesians that the Gentiles are now co-heirs with the Jews. Through Jesus, they became members of the same body. Therefore, they would receive everything God had promised the Jewish converts if they followed Christ's teachings.

Gospel: Matthew 2: 1 - 12

Astrologers from the east came looking for the newborn king of the Jews, which greatly disturbed King Herod. Herod wanted to kill Jesus, and asked the astrologers to return and tell him where Jesus was. The astrologers found Jesus and brought him gifts, but received a message in a dream telling them not to return to Herod.

Please take note:

This is the flu season and as the H1N1 flu is around as well, Bishop Bootkoski has advised that Communion be offered in the hand. The blood of Christ from the chalice is voluntary and is offered only to those who wish to partake. Please be advised that offering of communion only in the hand is temporary and has been designated for health reasons.

Many thanks once again to the parishioners of St. Mary's for your offerings for Christmas flowers in memory of friends and relatives. Your generosity is shown in our beautifully decorated church, inside and out. May our Lord bless you ~
